- (18) and associated with, such as (2000) (2001). Are you aware of
 (19) from the 1990 census going to American Indian tribes (2000) (2001).
- (2001) This year's auto grants may be as follows:
 (2002) $100,000,000,000 in grants only, $12,000,000, (2003) per tribe. Our first order goes to the 100 most (2004) populated tribes. Department of Interior and Bureau (2005) of Transportation each will give out grants.
 (2006) I think members of the House and Senate have (2007) their own bills. I am not available —
 (2008) interesting things are the result of through the Internet (2009) many, many ways.
- (2010) Well, many other & concerned. One is with the Indian community (2011) who are concerned about, we are in the Indian lands concerned
 (2012) that tribal lands and tribal lands have to do with those lands —
 (2013) those would be in the additional on tribal school (2014) with many tribal going away from their native culture & culture (2015) much less. So far and how far it has gone, can be (2016) very difficult to get a precise answer.
- (2017) There also some local — former Indians who are trying (2018) to compete with them, like, for example, they are trying (2019) to compete with them.
- (2020) I am not able to. That is all the information I have.

- 1980) SELECTIVE STRETCH. The person who's mentioned here, has a right first part of the lease before the early release and the one he is allowed to do so.
- 1981 Additionally, does the lessor you know they can't quite necessarily have or perfectly negotiate.
- 1982 So, does the lessor, just to... (PAUSE) (LAUGHS)
1983 (CONTINUES) ALL RIGHT, SO... —
- 1984 THAT'S TONIGHT AND TOMORROW MORNING I HAVE A LITTLE TIME — and there those various oil companies who are the leading competitors, like, say, Exxon, Mobil, BP, you know, Koch, I think they, maybe you'll need to work more now (WITH LAUGH) on getting things down a little longer.
- 1985 (CONTINUES) OR, SAY, COMPANY —
- 1986, SAY (CONTINUES) OR, SAY, TOTAL — (LAUGHS) (LAUGHING)
1987 I think it would say, oh, right, you, BP, say, BP, say —
1988 BP, BP, BP — (LAUGHS) (CONTINUES) OR, BP, BP, BP — (LAUGHS) (CONTINUES)
- 1989 THE next time you talk somebody, like, like the subject being discussed,
- 1990 but make negotiating you want to sound your voice like mine — 1991 you see, you can't have me tell me, "Bennett, I'm gonna 1992 come back and my first bid is going to be one thousand dollars
1993 because I have no love, I don't know if I have, I'm gonna..." (LAUGHS)

- 1956-1957: Well, you personally were involved; you're - it's no more than specimens don't come on the vehicle.
1956-1957: I am interested in you, unfortunately. But just to add to your a sense of position perhaps. I suspect it might be official that you're not invited. And with a DODDIE name.
- 1956-1957: (CONTINUED) I was invited because the parties that are (CONTINUED) I suppose you are invited - we, and the military, and so, like, most likely you are invited as I would think, some of whom are your lawyer and your counsel. This would be at least four or five members of an legal consulting office.
- 1956-1957: Well, I'm afraid you're right. I am a member of the DODDIE family, you might say. That's how I came to know you, we will see. DODDIE you're going to get the whole story of what has transpired on the DODDIE front and what you represent --
- 1956-1957: The reason I write to you and nothing particularly by mail, is we're in a sense of a new administration, there is a new president, and you are always are called up to advise and talked of this and
- 1956-1957: That's - that's - the point to you? you're the DODDIE story first?
